ORDER:

Due to the administrative mismanagement over the years and also due to appointment of excess staff, which resulted in severe financial burden in Annamalai University, the Government have repealed the Annamalai University Act, 1928 and enacted Annamalai University Act, 2013, by which, the Annamalai University became a State University. The Government had appointed an Administrator to administer and manage the Annamalai University. The Administrator made the following recommendations:-

- Re-deployment of surplus staff ,
- revision of Block Grant,
- converting the university into affiliation type,
- takeover of Medical College and Hospital by Government and
- sanction of special financial package to improve the financial position of the Annamalai University.

2. Accordingly in the G.O. first read above, orders have been issued redeploying 2635 surplus non-teaching staff in the categories of Assistant, Junior Assistant, Record Clerk, Driver, Assistant Programmer, Electrician (Gr.I), Office Assistant, Watchman and Gardener in Annamalai University to various Secretariat / Government Departments and Government Undertakings for a period of three years on agreement basis as per Section 19 of Tamil Nadu Government Servants (Conditions of Service) Act, 2016 and as per service regulations of the respective Government Undertakings, subject to certain terms & conditions.

3. In his letter second read above, the Registrar (i/c), Annamalai University has stated that based on the above orders the surplus non-teaching staff of Annamalai University were redeployed to Secretariat / Government Departments and Government Undertakings for a period of three years and that the period of redeployment is due to expire during the month of May 2020. He has further stated that the financial burden of the University is yet to be retrieved and that the University is not in a position to take back the surplus staff and has therefore requested the Government to extend the period of agreement of such non-teaching staff for a further period of 3 years and issue necessary orders, in this regard.

4. The Government after careful examination of the above proposal of the Registrar(i/c), Annamalai University hereby order extension of the services of the 2635 surplus non-teaching staff in the categories of Assistant, Junior Assistant, Record Clerk, Driver, Assistant Programmer, Electrician (Gr.I), Office Assistant, Watchman and Gardener in Annamalai University who were redeployed to various Secretariat / Government Departments and Government Undertakings for a further period of one year from the next date to the date of completion of three years of the individual on agreement basis as per Section 19 of the Tamil Nadu Government Servants (Conditions of Service) Act, 2016 and as per service regulation of the respective Government Undertakings, subject to the terms and conditions already issued in G.O. first read above or until further orders, whichever is earlier.

5. The respective Secretariat / Government Departments and Government Undertakings are directed to issue necessary proceedings to each surplus non-teaching staff of Annamalai University to this effect.

6. This order issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department vide its U.O. No. 17740/Edn-I/2020 dated:27.05.2020.
