

Directorate of Technical Education, Chennai - 600 025.

Circular No. 20342/Y2/CDC/2022, Dated : 20.06.2022

Sub: Technical Education – Padma Awards to be announced by the Government of India on the occasion of Republic Day, 2023 – Nominations called for – Reg.

Ref: 1. Chennai, Secretariat, Higher Education (A2) Department, Deputy Secretary to Government Letter No.7841/A2/2022-1, dated: 27.05.2022.

2. Chennai, Secretariat to Government, Public (General-I) Department, Letter No. 16157/Genl.1/2022-1, dated 04.05.2022

With reference to the letters cited above, it is informed that the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India has called for nominations for the Padma Series of awards to be announced on the occasion of Republic Day, 2023. The award seeks to recognize 'work of distinction' and is given for distinguished and exceptional achievements/service in all fields / disciplines such as Art, Literature and Education, Sports, Medicine, Social Work, Science and Engineering, Public Affairs, Civil Service, Trade and Industry etc.

2. The Ministry of Home Affairs has stated that while nominations are received in respect of a large number of persons, there could, however, be several talented persons who are left out of consideration despite exceptional contribution in their field. Often many of these persons may get overlooked primarily for the reason that they may not seek publicity or attention in the public domain. It is requested to take concerted efforts in identifying such persons whose excellence and achievements really deserve to be recognized, and make suitable nominations in their favour.

3. The state that the Ministry of Home Affairs has also requested to adhere to the following guidelines while finalizing the nominations for the Padma Awards, 2023:

i) Persons recommended are pre-eminently worthy of the awards, looking at their life-time achievement. The criteria for selection should invariably be 'excellence plus' and the highest standards should be applied while recommending persons for these awards. The existence of an element of public service in the achievements of the person recommended for the award would be a desirable factor.

ii) As the Padma Award is the second highest civilian Award of the country, it should be considered whether the recommended person has earlier been given any national Award or a State Award in his respective field.

iii) Efforts may be made to identify talented persons from amongst women, weaker sections of society, SCs & STs, differently-abled persons etc., who deserve to be considered for the award.

iv) The decoration is normally not conferred posthumously. However, in highly deserving cases, Government could consider giving an award posthumously, if the demise of the person proposed to be honoured has been recent, say within a period of one year preceding the Republic Day on which it is proposed to announce the award.

v) A higher category of Padma award can be considered in respect of a person who has earlier been conferred an award, provided a period of at least five years has elapsed. However, in exceptionally deserving cases, a relaxation can be considered.

vi) Government servants including those working with PSUs, except Doctors and Scientists, are not eligible for Padma Awards.

4. It is informed to select suitable nominations in consultation with Heads of Departments under your control, for the Padma Award series, by taking into account, the distinguished services rendered by them in their respective fields and send the same to this department in the prescribed proforma (copy enclosed) along with citation in English on or before 31.07.2022. It may be taken note that proposals may be sent to this Department about the achievers, even if the individual nominations are not received.

5. It is informed to strictly adhere to the cut-off date mentioned above and acknowledge the receipt of this letter to the Government immediately.

The Principal Secretary to Government, Public (General-I) Department has requested to send suitable nominations for the Padma awards in the prescribed format to Government before 31.07.2022. Hence, the suitable nominations for the Padma Award in the prescribed format may please be sent immediately at soccdote@gmail.com (A copy of the above Government letter with enclosures is enclosed herewith for necessary action)

D.O. No. 1/12/2022-Public

April 21st, 2022

Respected Sir/Madam,

The Padma Awards, namely, Padma Vibhushan, Padma Bhushan and Padma Shri, are amongst the highest civilian awards of the country. Instituted in 1954, these Awards are announced on the occasion of the Republic Day every year. The award seeks to recognize 'work of distinction' and is given for distinguished and exceptional achievements/service in all fields/disciplines, such as, Art, Literature and Education, Sports, Medicine, Social Work, Science and Engineering, Public Affairs, Civil Service, Trade and Industry etc. All persons without distinction of race, occupation, position or sex are eligible for these Awards.

2. It is the convention to invite nominations for these Awards from all States/ UT Governments as also from several other sources to enable broad-based consideration.

3. The nominations/recommendations for the Padma Awards will be received only on the online portal <https://awards.gov.in> designed for this purpose. The nominations / recommendations should contain all relevant details specified in the format available on the above portal, including a citation in narrative form (maximum 800 words), clearly bringing out the distinguished and exceptional achievements/service of the person recommended in his/her respective field/discipline. While recommending a person online, it should be ensured that all the necessary details are properly filled. The steps to be taken for making online recommendations are available on above said website <https://awards.gov.in>. A copy of the statutes and rules governing these Awards is also available on the website: <https://padmaawards.gov.in>.

4. It has been observed in the past that while nominations are received in respect of a large number of persons; there could, however, be several talented persons who are left out of consideration despite exceptional contribution in their field. Often many such persons may get overlooked primarily for the reason that they may not seek publicity or attention in the public domain. It is, therefore, requested to make concerted efforts in identifying such persons whose excellence and achievements deserve to be recognized and make suitable nominations in their favour. It goes without saying that recognition of such deserving persons will only add to the prestige of these Awards.

5. In the above background, I request you to kindly send suitable nominations for the Padma Awards to be announced on the occasion of Republic Day, 2023. In this regard, it is suggested that you may constitute a Special Search Committee for identifying.

considering and finalizing your recommendations/nominations. While finalizing recommendations, the following points may be kept in view:-

- (i) Persons recommended are pre-eminently worthy of the Awards, looking at their life-time achievements. The criteria for selection should invariably be 'excellence plus' and the highest standards should be applied while recommending persons for these awards. The existence of an element of public service in the achievements of the person recommended for the award would be a desirable factor.
- (ii) As the Padma Award is the second highest civilian award of the country, it should also be considered whether the recommended person has earlier been given any National award or a State award in his/her respective field.
- (iii) Efforts may be made to identify talented persons from amongst women, weaker sections of the society, SCs & STs, divyang persons, etc., who deserve to be considered for the award.
- (iv) The decoration is normally not conferred posthumously. However, in highly deserving cases, Government could consider giving an award posthumously if the demise of the person proposed to be honoured has been recent, say within a period of one year preceding the Republic Day on which it is proposed to announce the award.
- (v) A higher category of Padma Award can be considered in respect of a person who has earlier been conferred an award, provided a period of at least five years has elapsed. However, in exceptionally deserving cases, a relaxation can also be considered.
- (vi) Government servants including those working with PSUs, except Doctors and Scientists, are not eligible for Padma Awards.

6. The online nominations / recommendations for the Padma Awards will begin from May 1st, 2022 and the last date for nominations is September 15th, 2022. The cut-off date may please be strictly adhered to as nominations / recommendations received only during 1st May, 2022 to 15th September, 2022 will be considered. It may also be noted that the nominations/recommendations received through online mode only will be considered.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(R. K. Singh)

To,
Chief Secretaries/Administrators of all States/UTs Governments
